Quadrangle, pursuant to Section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 214, and Part 63 of the Commission's Rules, 47 C.F.R. § 63. Specifically, this Application is filed pursuant to the streamlined procedures of Commission Rules 63.03(b)(1)(ii) and/or (2)(i). The parties are sometimes referred to herein as "the Applicants".

Hudson Valley is a Delaware Limited Liability Company qualified to do business in the State of New York, and holds a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity from the New York Public Service Commission authorizing it to operate as a facilities-based common carrier and reseller of telephone services. Pursuant to that Certificate, Hudson Valley provides facilities-based private line services in the downstate area of the State of New York. Connecticut is a Delaware Limited Liability Company qualified to do business in the State of Connecticut, and holds a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity from the State of Connecticut Department of Public Utility Control authorizing it to operate as a facilities-based common carrier and reseller of telephone services. Pursuant to that Certificate, Connecticut provides facilities-based private line services in the southwest region of the State of Connecticut. Parent is a Delaware corporation and owns 100% of the Membership Interests of Hudson Valley and Connecticut. It acts solely as a holding company for the stock and/or Membership Interests of Hudson Valley, Connecticut and other subsidiaries and affiliates. DCG is a Delaware Limited Liability Company whose sole member is Quadrangle Capital Partners LP. Quadrangle Capital Partners LP is a Delaware Limited Partnership. DCG was formed for the sole purpose to make the stock acquisition from Parent, and will designate its rights to the investment to Quadrangle, such that after closing the Convertible Preferred Stock will be held directly by Quadrangle. Quadrangle is an investment firm, which does not itself provide any telecommunications services
